

Chief Director: Corporate Communications - Pretoria

Provide leadership in the development of relevant and proactive strategic communication of management systems

Competencies:

- Strategic capability and leadership skills
- Financial management skills
- People management and empowerment skills
- Client orientation and customer focus
- Exceptional written and verbal communication skills
- Computer literacy
- Project management skills
- High-level public relations skills
- Media monitoring skills
- Knowledge of international diplomacy
- High level of stress tolerance and ability to maintain high work ethics and attend to various tasks simultaneously
- High level of managerial skills.

▫Duties:

- Provide leadership in the development of relevant and proactive strategic communication of management systems
- Produce and oversee the drafting and implementation of corporate communications strategies for the benefit of the Department
- Manage external communication services, including media liaison, media analysis, monitoring and research and speechwriting
- Establish the language bureau (for editorial quality assurance plus translation into specific languages)
- Manage quality and value of online channels and multimedia productions, including radio, videography, photography, the Internet and intranet sites
- Develop an incisive and proactive publishing programme
- Grow profile of internal communications through specific projects.
 - All appointments will be subject to a process of security clearance, reference checking and qualification verification.