

Governance reform in Nigerian states – experiences, innovations and lessons for global good governance

Thanks to:

The United Kingdom and Nigerian State and Federal government partners for making the SPARC programme a success.

State Partnership for Accountability, Responsiveness and Capability (SPARC)

14 Oguda Close, off Lake Chad Crescent, Maitama
Abuja, FCT, Nigeria

www.sparc-nigeria.com

EXPANDING HORIZONS LEARNING EVENT

2016

Celebrating seven years of the State Partnership for Accountability,
Responsiveness and Capability

April 12, 2016
Congress Hall, Transcorp Hilton, Abuja

Agenda

The SPARC Governance Reform Journey

Mark Walker, National Programme Manager, and Hadiza Elayo, Deputy National Programme Manager, present the SPARC Governance Reform Journey; a journey focused on improving service delivery for the ordinary Nigerian citizen. 11:00 – 11:30

SPARC Tools, State Experiences

Lagos and Niger State officials present their stories about their experiences in using SPARC's Service Charter and planning tools to improve service delivery. 11:30 – 11:50

Swimming Against the Tide: Lessons from Public Service Reforms in Developing Countries

Dr. Joe Abah, Director General, Bureau of Public Service Reforms presents valuable reform lessons from around the globe. 11:50 - 12:15

Knowledge Sharing in Online spaces: Lessons from Eldis

Alan Stanley, from the Institute of Development Studies, shares 20 years of experiences from the Eldis global knowledge sharing platform. 12:15 – 12:50

SPARC Tools, State Experiences

Jigawa and Yobe State officials present their stories about their experiences in using SPARC's Planning and Mandate Mapping tools to make critical civil service improvements, while Ebonyi State presents their story outlining sector planning and budgeting successes. 12:50 – 1:30

Lunch

Nigerian Governors' Forum

Representatives of the Nigerian Governors' Forum present the newly launched NGF Help Desk, and the Internally Generated Revenue Dashboard – two new initiatives intended to build state capacity. 2:30 – 3:00

Agenda

KM Institute

Rooven Pakkiri, from the KM Institute, presents Social Knowledge Management, its benefits, and how it can be used by your organisation. 3:00 – 3:30

SPARC Tools, State Experiences

Enugu and Lagos State officials present their experiences in using SPARC's Human Resources Management and Public Financial Management tools for improved service delivery, while Abia State presents how to make money work for the people. 3:30 – 4:00

Partnership for Innovation

DAI Senior Governance Technical Consultant, Christina Frey, presents on DAI and Partnership for Innovation – Action for Impact. 4:00 – 4:15

Accountability Lab

Lawrence Yealue, II, Accountability Lab's West African Regional Director presents the Citizen Driven Approach, the world's First Accountability Incubator, followed by a short film from the Accountability Film School in Liberia, by Logan Campbell. 4:15 – 4:45

Selling Gender Like Milo

Voices for Change inspires young men and women to speak up and speak out about equality in Nigeria. 4:45 – 5:15

Closing Remarks by DFID and DAI followed by a cocktail for all participants. 5:15 – 6:30